The year was 1921, and so it began, the first visionaries of Pilot International, Elizabeth Leonard, with six of her friends, gathering together to set a True Course Ever. Traditions of the past have provided a foundation for the future of Pilot International. While our Pilot heritage is rich, as Pilots we can only move forward to the future by adjusting to the ever-changing society in which we dwell. As history is our teacher, keen Pilot wisdom will allow each of you to light your path for your Pilot successes.

As Pilots I challenge you to embrace every opportunity to serve such that we can continue to achieve unbelievable goals with every moment that presents itself.

The year is 2009, and our tomorrow begins today. Adlai E. Stevenson wrote "we can chart our future clearly and wisely only when we know the path which has led to the present." Pilot International provides the conduit for each of us to draw on its resources, standards, and ideals such that we can pass on what matters most.

I believe the greatest gift in life is the gift of giving. In that respect, I give you my eyes for a vision to make today's moments tomorrow's success stories. I give my ears to listen to you, the members, and my hands to lead by example while validating the Pilot spirit. Finally, I give my heart, representative of my passion, loyalty, and commitment to Pilot International.
