In 1921, a group of dedicated women had a vision. They wanted to provide friendship and service throughout the world in order to improve the quality of life one community at a time. I appreciate these remarkable Pilots and am motivated to preserving that same vision today. It takes a definite commitment and perhaps a little imagination to envision the expansion of Pilot. I happily make this commitment to Pilot and most certainly have a vivid imagination!

I also have a vision of an organization that is financially stable with the ability to continue its assistance to clubs through grants and scholarships. I pledge to remain diligent in this regard as the efforts of our clubs through these programs touch thousands of lives. Merely knowing that a club has brought a smile to a cancer patient's face or allowed a handicapped child to swing high like the other children comforts me. It is the reason that Pilot needs to expand.

My parents are my heroes, and I strive to be like them each day. They often told me that neighbors must help neighbors as it's what makes the community a home. It is this thought - the desire to serve my neighbors near and far that gives me the upward impetus to accept the nomination for PI treasurer.
