My vision for Pilot encompasses our traditions of friendship and service.....beginning with work in our local communities and branching out to reach the multitudes of those in need worldwide.

Membership growth is a concern we can overcome. Forming new clubs and strengthening struggling clubs will be one of my top priorities. I will encourage our members to promote the principles of Pilot to every contact with contagious passion. I will also do more to support our Anchors and bring them into Pilot after graduation. My vision includes working to see that the bridge between Anchor and Pilot is completed.

I applaud our recent increase in the use of technology. Many Pilots have talents that are freely available to be shared. I support the ongoing use of email and the web to keep us viable, to maintain that personal touch and to significantly reduce our cost of doing business.

We have great visibility locally. I will work internationally to make Pilot a household name through good marketing programs. Efforts to raise the public's awareness will help us gain members and solicit potential corporate sponsors to fund BrainMinders, Project Lifesaver and other projects.

Good leadership training is essential regardless of the level of the position. Positive, strong leadership can advance our position as the service organization of choice as well as promote our principles, goals and mission. I will foster the exchange of ideas and innovative planning. Sharing and caring among our clubs brings out the best in all of us.
