

Becky Burrows Memorial Scholarship Application

The Becky Burrows Memorial Scholarship was established in 2005 from the estate of Becky Burrows. Becky Burrows lived in Arlington, Virginia and was a member of the Pilot Club of Arlington Northeast Potomac District for 38 years. She was one of the first nine employees at the International Monetary Fund where she worked for 29 years. She was very friendly and spent much of her time at Pilot events making guests feel welcome and was also very helpful to new Pilots. She attended more than 25 Pilot International conventions where she often served as a doorkeeper.

This fund provides aid to students who are reentering the job market, beginning “second careers,” or seeking to improve their professional skills for their current occupation by continuing their education in that field. Students must pursue a career working with youth and young adults in leadership and development, helping people and encouraging brain safety and health, or caring for families during times of need.

Eligibility:

- Full-time or part-time students classified as undergraduates, graduate students or doctoral students.
- Must be re-entering the job market, beginning a "second career," or seeking to improve professional skills for their current occupation by continuing their education in that field.
- Career goal(s) that further Pilot International’s mission of (1) working with youth and young adults in leadership and development, (2) helping people and encouraging brain safety and health, or (3) caring for families during times of need.
- Awards are based on community service, financial need, academic success, and application contents.

Details:

- Scholarships are awarded for one academic year.
- Award amounts may vary but will not exceed $2,000.00 per year.

Application Deadline:

March 16, 2026, 5:00 p.m. (EDT). All required documents must be submitted in one (1) electronic file in PDF format to PIFFscholarships@pilothonq.org

Policies for all Pilot International Scholarships

1. The Executive Committee of Pilot International will provide the overall administration of the scholarship funds.
2. The Scholarship Committee will review and grade scholarship applications and make recommendations to the Executive Committee of Pilot International. The Scholarship Committee will recommend as recipients of scholarships those persons who in the sole judgment of the committee are best suited to further the purposes of the fund.
3. Scholarship funds may be used for tuition and related educational expenses considered necessary by the Executive Committee. Actual amounts awarded may vary.
4. In accordance with IRS regulations, officers, directors, trustees, employees, or current members of the Scholarship Committee of Pilot International are not eligible for scholarship programs sponsored by Pilot International.
5. When an application has been approved, the scholarship recipient will be notified and payment will be made in one installment directly to the applicant's educational institution upon receipt of the appropriate forms.
6. A student may reapply annually by submitting an updated application and supporting documentation for those scholarships that are renewable.
7. A scholarship applicant is limited to one scholarship award annually. Applicants applying for more than one scholarship must submit the correct application package for each scholarship. If an applicant is eligible for more than one scholarship, the Scholarship Committee will decide on the scholarship most appropriate for the individual.
