Active Clubs Produce Leaders

- Active clubs have opportunities for developing and honing leadership skills
 - Multiple projects per year provide many and diverse leadership opportunities
 - Member Leaders who step up to the plate
 - Officers
 - Coordinators
 - Chairs of specific projects, events, or activities
 - Appointees

Member Leaders Are Out There

- Seek member leaders, appoint, nominate, encourage, mentor
 - Delegate
 - Recognize skills and abilities in others
 - Use members' skills
 - Encourage by keeping the communication lines open
 - Support and assist

Recruit New Pilot Leaders

To recruit and persuade new Pilots to accept leadership roles

- Use your lines of communication
- Your observations
- Your recommendations
- Look for new Pilots to fill offices
- Find the best fit for the office
- Sell the position

Leadership At Every Level-- It's Up to Us!

- As officers, current leaders, and past leaders
- As members
 - What do we need to do?
 - How do we go about it?
 - When do we act?
 - Who do we contact?
 - How do we follow up?

Club and District Leaders: Tap Future Leaders

- Be intentional
- Be open to new Pilots who have shown interest, potential, or have been recommended
- Be an encourager
- Recognize talents and strengths
- Commend efforts and praise successes
- Provide training
- Offer your assistance(travel with them, be a sounding board, be a mentor)

Be A Member Leader

- Be courageous
- Step out
- Be active
 - Be present
 - Participate
 - Be responsible and dependable
 - Be the best that you can be for your club, your district, and Pilot International

Then—Step up to the Next Level
